

SPHERE

MEDIA

SPHERE, Switzerland's leading media dedicated to wealth management

Since its founding in 2016, SPHERE has been engaging the Swiss financial community, offering peers a range of spaces for exchange in both French and German. This includes a weekly newsletter, a website, a magazine, and events held throughout the year that cover numerous financial topics. All stakeholders in Swiss finance have access to a platform where they can meet, gain insights, and develop professionally.

Service-focused, the weekly SPHERE Newsletter provides wealth management professionals—independent asset managers, bankers, and institutional investors—with video content and articles covering a wide range of solutions to support their core and auxiliary activities:

- Services and solutions for independent asset managers and family offices, including legal and compliance, custodian banks, wealthtech, PMS, CRM, and more.
- Investment topics: equities, fixed income, alternative management, private equity, private debt, real estate, infrastructure, crypto, and others.
